Yes, my Lawyers are vigorously fighting with the FBI over 496,000 pages of evidence.. This is so above most folks pay grades, it's sickening.

It's also impossible to investigate and fight a case of this magnitude without funding, I'm self funded on all I've done the last 2 years what I do. I'll be out in the public. If your scared of me then steer clear, or get vaccinated. Point. Blank. Period.

I may die of covid, but I'd rather die actually living. I have family members whose days are numbered. If they want to come see me and stay at my house then they are coming regardless of protocol. I don't play for the money anymore. My family has been taken care of. Fine me if you want. My way of living and my values are more important to me than a dollar. I love my teammates and enjoy playing ball because all the outside bs goes out the window in these moments. I just want to win the Super Bowl and enjoy these healthy individual. That is MY CHOICE based on MY experiences and what I think is best. I'll play for free this year to live life how I've lived it from day one. If I'm forced into retirement, so be it. I've enjoyed the times I've had. I'll get to live freely with my wife, kids, and extended family forever. We'd get to enjoy the times that we missed from the sacrifices we've had to make just so I could play this wonderful game. So either way, It's a win/win.

That's where I stand. Thank you for everyone who has been supportive throughout this process. A lot of other NFL players hold my position as well but aren't Hillary and Obama say their mentor was Robert Byrd, a longtime "exalted Cyclops" in the Ku Klux Klan. Biden's Senate buddies were segregationists. Hunter uses the N-word. Sheldon Whitehouse belongs to an all-white club. Still have any doubt about which is the party of racism?

Who is advocating for the political prisoners in Washington DC jail? No American charged with a misdemeanor should be sitting in jail without a bond and in solitary confinement. This is a human rights crisis.

How many THOUSANDS of looters and arsonists from ANTIFA and the BLM were NOT charged or have not been charged for their FELONIES?
The answer is THOUSANDS.
No one arrested in DC on Jan. 6th should still be in jail
No cash bail, right? Released with notice to appear, right?

I find this concept really interesting - that true belief in god absolves you of a fear that will rule your life. You still feel fear, but YOU own the fear. The fear doesn't own you. Is that how you see it @RealMattCouch? I'm not a Christian so I might b grasping at straws here.

Liberals are so pathetic and weak in debating... They can't even defend Biden or Harris without starting a sentence with "But Trump said..."

Either you can defend your candidate without mentioning Trump or your candidate SUCKS!

Thus ends the lesson....

Dad was indeed a pro wrestler back in the day. It was well before it was popularized on television. Back when it was real, they often wrestled at state fairs. Dad wrestled all over the US & Canada.

Is it any wonder I'd take up martial arts and boxing?

In a democracy, power is given not taken.

But it is still power.

Love, compassion, caring have no use for it.
But it is fuel for greed, hostility, jealousy...

All power corrupts.

Take care which powers you allow a democracy to wield.

I discussed in my last tech tweet how foreign agents using social engineering can be inserted into operating systems departments as software engineers.

Far more important is placing development managers into such departments. Here's how its done:

They have greater access to information than the worker bee agent, they have greater influence in architecting their portion of the product, but most important - they have nearly complete power to hire additional embedded agents from their cadre of trained engineers

They are seldom hired from the outside. They are generally promoted from within as positions open

We earlier discussed the means using social engineering by which foreign agents are inserted as software or hardware engineers into targeted companies. Once an engineer is hired as an embedded agent intensive training is begun to prepare the agent to be a candidate for a potential managerial opening.

More social engineering.

They are trained in how to dress, act and project an image of managerial material. They are taught techniques of influence, persuasion and suggestion such as Neuro-

Iran's centrifuge project was destroyed by hidden code in spite of thorough system auditing and security procedures.

How is this possible?

I'll explain using an example and I'm challenging every covert agency to disprove the validity of this explanation.

I'm including an example of the simplest possible random data generator using a single machine instruction (XOR).

The program is provided three sets from any data sources and returns three random sets with a virtually equal number of zeros and ones, in random order.

Random data generators are common and used for everything from probability analysis to speed testing.

Here's the problem: when executed with three iterations it returns three random data sets. It may be argued that the sets may not be entirely random or there exists some other fault, but no one can argue that the purpose of the routine is an attempt to generate random data.

It is not.

If iterated four times it returns the original "seed" data. It is in fact an encryption/decryption engine.

If you take any three sets of characters of any equal length (let's label them A, B and C) and then:

XOR A to B
Then XOR the result of B to C
Then similarly XOR C to A

And then perform four iterations of the above. And finally:

XOR A to B
And then B to C

It will result in the original contents of A moved to C, C moved to B and B moved to A.

Of interest here is that the three results of the third iteration, though deterministic as a whole, are entirely random within each of the three independent data segments. Thus if any one of the three segments is missing or withheld, it is impossible, from the remaining two, to extract even the tiniest fragment of the three original contents.

The Republican Party is nonexistent. It's like we have no opposition. Every one of them - with a small handful of notable exceptions - are worthless and have no business being in elected office.

Biden said yesterday that we are more divided than any time since the civil war.

LOL! Really? I wonder if it has anything to do with him, his administration, his military appointees, his FBI, his DOJ, and his media propagandists calling white people the scum of the earth 24/7?

Estimates of the number of slaves in the world today vary from 38 to 48 million people. There are vast numbers of slaves in:

Africa
North Korea
Middle East
SE Asia

It's long past time for Biden & the CDC to "follow the science" and end this mask mandate for fully #COVID19 vaccinated individuals. Americans should be able to travel to celebrate Independence Day without having to follow an outdated and unnecessary mandate.

Who unilaterally determined that Rudy Giuliani's court filings were lies? Litigation is based upon factual disputes. These disputes are resolved during the litigation process. Rudy's suspension is an affront to justice and a warning of things to come as we descend into tyranny.

Your fans need to see this article as much as your foes. FDR was right about unions being wrong for government jobs, but neither half of the ruling Duopoly wants to admit it.

"Admitting it" for them is therefore MY role. You're welcome, America.

We need a National Day of Prayer again soon in America.. This is the most anti-God administration in our nations history. It's sad Christian leaders do not have the ear of this President..

The FBI and ATF need turned into support agencies No sworn personnel just labs and records They should only be a resource for local law enforcement. This isn't early 1900's. State agencies can communicate and collaborate much better and easier There isn't a gap anymore

It's time for Christians and Conservatives in America to take a long hard look in the mirror..

Stop worrying about yourself, and start thinking about the America you are leaving for your children and grandchildren..

Can you live with it? Because I damn sure can't..

Matt, you know what is going to happen. Christians and Conservatives are unable to let go of "muh job, muh business" mentality, letting the World burn around them, until it hits their porch. But that moment will be too late to cry. We need a new paradigm. Country First!

It's time for Christians and Conservatives in America to take a long hard look in the mirror..

Stop worrying about yourself, and start thinking about the America you are leaving for your children and grandchildren..

Can you live with it? Because I damn sure can't..

Matt, you know what is going to happen. Christians and Conservatives are unable to let go of "muh job, muh business" mentality, letting the World burn around them, until it hits their porch. But that moment will be too late to cry. We need a new paradigm. Country First!

This is the biggest LIE told by liberals... It's a complete falsehood and fairytale... Trump literally lost close to $2 Billion in net worth while in office..

STOP SPREADING LIES... We're tired of it.. Only people who have the ability to not like facts continue to lie like this!

Trump actually helped his own Finances and those of his children. Biden has helped my family and finances by getting Americans vaccinated ahead of schedule and reviving the sagging economy. He's imperfect and there's plenty to criticize but no comparison with a would-be dictator
